

LUDWIG-
MAXIMILIANS-
UNIVERSITÄT
MÜNCHEN

INSTITUTE FOR INTERNATIONAL LAW
CHAIR OF PUBLIC LAW AND PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW
10TH MUNICH ADVANCED COURSE IN INTERNATIONAL LAW 2021

Coping with Natural Disasters, Climate Change and Pandemics: The Role of International Law

Date: 19 - 23 July 2021 • Online Course

Week of Academic Programme*

	Monday 19 July	Tuesday 20 July	Wednesday 21 July	Thursday 22 July	Friday 23 July
Morning class 9am-10.30am	Christian Walter Introduction and Brief Refresher Course	Lecture 1	Lecture 2	Lecture 3	Mini Moot Court: Group Work/Prepara- tion
Coffee break (30 min)
Morning class 11am-12.00pm	Christian Walter Introduction and Brief Refresher Course	Lecture 1	Lecture 2	Lecture 3	Mini Moot Court: De- bate Closing remarks
Lunch break (1 hour)
Afternoon class 1pm-2.30pm	Socializing-/"get-to- know"-Event	Lecture 1	Lecture 2	Lecture 3
Evening

* Disclaimer: The information contained herein has been cautiously arranged. However, unpredictable changes may require a revision of this schedule.

Structure of the lectures:

First session (9 am -10.30 am): Lecture

- Introduction and overview regarding each topic; provision with basic information regarding the institution/legal framework etc.
- Preparation for the following group work

(30 min coffee break)

Second session (11 am – 12 pm): Group Work

- Explanation of the group work and handing out the relevant reading materials
- 30-45 min group work
- Short presentation of each group's summary of the findings

(1 hour lunch break)

Third session (13 pm - 14.30 pm): Lecture

- Further in-depth information, current challenges, approaches for reforms/solving problems
- Conclusion